

PECS - LEVEL 1

This intensive two-day training is designed to teach participants the theory behind the Picture Exchange Communication Systems (PECS) and the protocols for how to appropriately implement the six phases of PECS. PECS promotes communication within a social context, without lengthy prerequisite training. Participants will leave the workshop with an understanding of how to implement PECS with individuals with autism, related developmental disabilities, and/or limited communication skills.

Who should attend?

This workshop is appropriate for all members of the educational team who would like to learn about the Picture Exchange Communication System (PECS), including speech-language pathologists, parents, teachers, behavior interventionists, behavior consultants, psychologists, social workers, caregivers and/or other professionals who are providing services for individuals with children with developmental disabilities.

Participants will learn:

Whether you are new to PECS or are currently implementing PECS, the PECS Level 1 Training workshop provides participants with the foundation and essential tools to implement all PECS phases at any time and within any setting. A wide range of topics and teaching strategies are covered through lecture, demonstration, and practice to provide participants with an all-inclusive training that addresses all their PECS needs.

- The key Pyramid components to designing effective educational environments.
- Strategies to create an abundance of opportunities for communication.
- The relationship between PECS and traditional communication training approaches.
- How to implement all six phases of PECS with target individuals, using a behavior analytic orientation.
- The criteria for transitioning from PECS to other communication modalities.
